From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Friends,

As the Christmas Season is upon us, I am thankful to almighty God for sending his only begotten Son to the world to be our salvation. Because of his unselfish love for us, we have the promise of eternal life with him. The Lord has truly blessed each and every one of us. One of the greatest blessings that we rejoice in this holiday season is the life and ministry of the Faith Community United Methodist Church. The presence of the Lord has truly been felt in the church and community throughout the decades. Many have come to know the Lord Jesus Christ, not only as the babe in the manger, but as the hope and salvation of their lives through the ministry of the church.

As this most festive yet reverent time of the year approaches, I welcome you to attend the regular Advent worship services, Sundays at 10:30. This Advent we will have a four-week sermon series that is family friendly and relevant to people of all ages. The series is titled "The Gift of the Nutcracker." The Nutcracker was first performed in 1892 and quickly became a holiday tradition, one that continues for many families to this day. This Christmas classic will be viewed in a new way, that is, through the eyes of faith.

Throughout history, people have debated and drawn a dividing line between the "sacred" and the "secular". At first the dividing line may seem obvious, but when we stop to examine what God has to say about this division, we might be surprised what we find. Scripture says all things were made through Christ and through Christ all things were reconciled to God. This iconic tale will help us understand God's greatest gift of the Christ Child and of the kingdom that Christ came to build. We will use this story along with the Holy Scripture to ponder God's most amazing gift at Christmas, our Lord Jesus Christ.

It is my prayer that you may invite someone to attend church during the Advent season. This is an excellent opportunity to host a family who may be unchurched or struggling to find the meaning of Christianity and the "culture" of the church. We can reach out to others using this sermon series and our worship to allow the God of all ages to work through the Holy Scripture and the Story to understand the most extraordinary gift— Jesus.

Thank you for welcoming me into the church and into your lives. It is my honor to serve as your pastor. I look forward to our Advent Worship as well as the Christmas Season.

Rev. John

Annual Conference – December 2

The Faith Community United Methodist Church annual conference will be held December 2, 2018 following the morning worship service. A light lunch will be provided.

This will be a Church conference which means all active members will be voting. We encourage all members to attend as we will be determining our church governing structure.

In 2011, our church voted to use the Leadership Team model as our organizational structure. At this time the Leadership Team believes this decision needs to be revisited. We encourage all members to attend and be a part of this important decision.

Coping with the Holidays

The holiday season is supposed to be a time of joy, parties and gatherings with friends and families. But the holidays can be difficult for many dealing with personal grief, loneliness, illnesses, economic concerns, separation and other relationship issues. We talk about peace on earth but live with the reality of terrorism and the reality that many of our service men and women from our country are at war. The commercialism of the holiday season bombards us with many unrealistic expectations. And many feel overwhelmed when our “to-do” list goes on forever.

The holidays are especially difficult when our feelings of sadness, loneliness, depression and anxiety are the opposite of the “Hallmark” images we see all around us. Try as much as possible to maintain your routines like sleeping, exercising, taking medications and appointments. It is all right to excuse yourself for some time away from social gatherings. While continually isolating yourself is not helpful, there are times when solitude can be a time of replenishment, re-connection and satisfaction.

There are many opportunities to volunteer during the Holiday Season. The satisfaction of giving to others can help you put your own problems in perspective. Live in the now! Try to let go of past regrets and experiences and find joy in the present moment. And remember laughter is good medicine!

Overall, may the Holidays remind us that God welcomes us and loves us just as we are. His love always surrounds us and he will keep us in his care.

Love Packages

Thank you for your continued donations of new and used Christians materials for Christians overseas. Please keep the donations coming! Following is a testimony from India and number of packages shipped in 2018.

India:

Thanks, here is a praise report from the mission field. By the grace of God, our church team was able to reach 47 unreached villages, and we reached two hundred and seventy-five thousand people with the literature and new praise and thank God for the privilege given to us to visit as first missionary to these 47 new villages. We have distributed more than two hundred thousand pieces of literature in the last 5 months. We also have displayed crucifixion of Jesus Film, through this way God enabled us to take the gospel to many unreached people. Because of the outreach literature ministry three thousand and twenty-one people have accepted Christ and we keep baptizing them in various places and pioneering churches. We are sending fulltime workers there to prepare great harvest of souls for the kingdom of God.

Thanks to all those who provided gifts for the St. Paul's after school program, which enables children to select a Christmas gift for their family members.

A big THANK YOU to our church family for many prayers and cards during my recent stay (October 7 through 14) at Methodist Hospital, Indianapolis, IN. It meant so much to Alice and me to know that you all were praying for us. The Chaplain of that hospital mentioned to me that he was called by someone in our church and asked to visit and pray with us. How blessed we are! Thanks again.

Have a Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year

Something to think about.....

Our struggles make us stronger, our experiences make us wiser, and our past makes us realize that we are meant to go through these things in order for our future to be brighter. We keep moving forward, opening new doors, and doing new things, because we have faith. Only God knows why he does things. Having a positive attitude towards problems and disappointments will enable you to have an amazing life full of beautiful surprises. And that is exactly is what is happening in our church!! Have you noticed more smiling people in church that is made up of old friends as well as new visitors? Have you noticed that people are talking about the service and engaging in fellowship and laughter?

Do you realize that people are giving more, offering their services and thinking positively about new ways to reach God's kingdom in and outside of our church building? Have you heard the joyous hymns and the sound of the joy of the Lord? Our church is becoming what God wants us to be? If you have experienced these things, then tell someone. Our church is poised to change lives- both on the inside as well as the outside. Perhaps this can be placed on your refrigerator and daily we can witness to what we have seen and experienced. Most importantly, let us thank God! Every time we're able to say "yes" to these experiences, we are experiencing the essence of Christ in our midst. To God Be the Glory!

Mike Murray, Lay Leader
